FEISAL Press release 003

Feisal tops the leader board of the GAGT Tour Order of Merit

With three weeks to go, Feisal Nahaboo is showing tremendous form as he continues to top the leader board at the Global Amateur Golf Tour (GAGT) Order of Merit 2020/21, formerly known as the European Amateur Golf Tour. Leading since July 2020, Feisal is currently playing with a handicap of 10.4 and has accrued over 1,000 points so far in both the World and UK Order of Merits. Feisal has amassed 40-44 points 5 times during the season, whilst hitting his handicap, or better, in 14 competitive tournaments. He has also won, and taken, full points as winner in 8 separate tournaments.

The GAGT is well established, having been launched in 1997, and it's continuing to grow. It comprises a series of individual stableford competitions played at top class courses. All amateur golfers need an active World Handicap System handicap. The Tour has five Orders of Merit: Ladies, Senior, UK, International and Worldwide. The Tour final is in the first week of October 2021 and played overseas in Valderrama, Spain.

“It’s my ambition to go all the way now, and win the tour. It’s been an incredibly busy and productive time in my business life, with several new companies ready to be launched, but golf offers me a way to recharge.”

Feisal smiles, “And I get to be competitive in a different way! The GAGT is the largest, and most established, amateur golf tour and I’m very proud to be part of this amateur competition.”
